

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3384 - HB 3525

February 16, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Allows a state official or employee to purchase surplus property from the state by bid at public auction or by Internet auction (using a personal computer on personal time).

Present law makes it unlawful for any state official or employee to purchase from the state except by bid at public auction any surplus property during the tenure of such person's office or employment, or for six months thereafter.

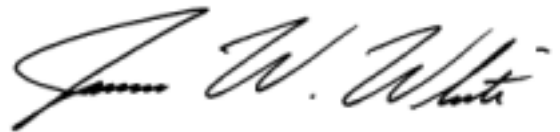

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumes minimal cost since the bill merely clarifies that a state employee may purchase state surplus property at public auction which would include Internet auction using a personal computer and on personal time.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a smaller, more compact script than the last name "White".
